Dear Colleagues,

it is my great pleasure to present the final program of the 32nd Meeting of the European Strabismological Society held together with the Bielschowsky Gesellschaft, the German Society for Strabismology and Neuroophthalmology, and the BOD, the German Orthoptic Association at the historic assembly hall of the Ludwig-Maximilians-University in Munich.

Thanks to your numerous submissions the program committee was able to set up a very interesting program. We have 56 scientific oral presentations and 94 poster presentations as well as the BOD-Session on various aspects of orthoptics and the Bielschowsky Session on aetiopathological aspects of strabismus and motility disorders. Other highlights will be the traditional ESA Lecture given this year by André Roth (Genève), the rapid fire poster presentation and the ESA case presentation. I would like to thank the Program Committee chaired by John Lee for their help.

I hope you will all enjoy the program, come to Munich and join the discussions with ophthalmologists and orthoptists from all over Europe and many countries around the world.

Munich, the capital of Bavaria in southern Germany, can easily be reached from any destination by car, train or air.

The City offers many attractions in addition to strabismology: numerous museums, concert and theatre halls, modern and historic architecture, restaurants with local and international cuisine, endless shopping as well as green parks. It is also an ideal starting point for pre and post congress tours to the Bavarian Alps with its lakes, mountains, castles of King Ludwig and many other places.

Welcome and "Grüß Gott!"

Oliver Ehrt

Session A

Binocular vision, Motility

11:15

01

Prisms for non-strabismics:

is the "vergence position of rest" stable?

Guntram Kommerell, J.M. Otto, M. Bach

(Universitäts-Augenklinik Freiburg, Germany)

02

Stereoacuity changes that exceed test-retest variability.

Jonathan M. Holmes, W.E. Adams, N.V. Odell, D.A. Leske,

S.R. Hatt (Mayo Clinic, Rochester, USA)

03

The "8 diopters base-in test" for the diagnosis of microstrabismus in daily practice.

Andrea C. Piantanida, G. Falcicchio, I. Pipitone

(Centro Oculistico Lariano-Cernobbio, Como, Italy)

04

Comparison of clinical features and outcome of patients with primary and secondary microtropia.

Sibel Oto, S.A. Bayar, S. Metindogan, A.C. Yazici, S. Cantürk,

Y.A. Akova (Baskent University Hospital, Department of Ophthalmology, Ankara, Turkey)

05

Dissociated vertical divergence, dissociated horizontal deviation, and infantile esotropia: What is the link?

Michael C. Brodsky

(Department of Ophthalmology Mayo Clinic, Rochester, USA)

06

Succinylcholine activation of human horizontal eye muscles.

Gunnar Lennerstrand, R. Bolzani, S. Tian, M. Benassi,

Session B

General Aspects of Strabismus, Botulinum Toxin

- 07 Postoperative improvement in health related quality of life in adults with strabismus.
Sarah R. Hatt, D. A. Leske, J. M. Holmes
(Mayo Clinic, Rochester, USA)
- 08 Sensory fusion and quality of life in adult patients before and after strabismus surgery.
Anna Dickmann, Gustavo Savino, M. T. Rebecchi, E. Di Nardo
(Clinic of Ophthalmology, Catholic University of Rome, Italy)
- 09 Outcome analysis of surgery for eye muscle palsy.
Laura Cabrejas, F.J. Hurtado, J. Tejedor
(Department Ophthalmology Hospital Ramón y Cajal, Madrid, Spain)
- 10 Quality of life in children with congenital cataract: Findings with the FKS, the German adaptation of the "Children's visual function questionnaire".
Christina Pieh (Department of Ophthalmology, University of Freiburg, Germany)
- 11 Strabismus in children with congenital glaucoma – a case series.
Isabel Oberacher-Velten, H. Winkler, H. Helbig
(University Eye Hospital, Klinikum of the University of Regensburg, Germany)
- 12 The profile of strabismus in stroke survivors.
Fiona J. Rowe
(Division of Orthoptics, University of Liverpool recruiting centres, Liverpool UK)
- 13 Strabismus after pterygium surgery.
Rosario Gomez de Liaño, R. Borrego, D. Santander
(Hospital Universitario Clinico San Carlos, Madrid, Spain)
- 14 Convergence spasm treated with botulinum toxin.
Beata Kaczmarek, E. Dawson, J. Lee
(Moorfields Eye Hospital, London, UK)
- 15 Consecutive exotropia after esotropia treatment with botulinum toxin A – When can you diagnose.
Rita Dinis da Gama, A. Sulzbacher, G. Varandas,
M. de Lourdes Vieira, A. Castanheira Dinis
(Instituto de Oftalmologia Dr. Gama Pinto, Lisbon, Portugal)

13:30 Lunch

Scientific program

16:30

Session C

Strabismus Surgery

18:00

- 16 Minimally invasive strabismus surgery (MISS) for horizontal rectus muscle reoperations.
Daniel S. Mojon (Department of Strabismology & Neuro-Ophthalmology, Kantonsspital St. Gallen and University of Bern, Switzerland)
- 17 Single horizontal rectus muscle recession or resection for small to moderate angle strabismus.
Daniel Neely, D. Rogers, N. Shah, D. Sprunger, D. Plager, G. Roberts (Indiana University School of Medicine, Indianapolis, USA)
- 18 Technique and results of bilateral faden operation of the medial rectus – modification of Mühlendyck.
Marion Kaup, A. C. Mödder, K. Hartmann (Orthoptik und Neuroophthalmologie, RWTH University Aachen, Germany)
- 19 Reoperation on fadenoperation: How often & why?
Isay Ozdemir, B. Gokyigit, S. Akar, A. Ozdemir, O.F. Yilmaz
(Istanbul Beyoglu Education and Research Eye Hospital, Turkey)
- 20 Coming back on a fadenoperation, still a nightmare?
Dominique Thouvenin, C. Lesage, O. Norbert, S. Nogue, L. Fontes (Clinique Saint Nicolas, Toulouse, France)

Scientific program

- 21 Y-splitting Surgery.
An effective procedure in lever arm reducing surgery.
Siegfried Priglinger, A. Kampik, D. Mojon, H. Kroehn,
G. Rudolph (Krankenhaus der Barmherzigen Brüder, Linz, Austria)
- 22 The efficacy of augmented transposition on surgery
in several indications.
Serpil Akar, G. Birsen, P. Gökhan, H. Pelin, Ö. Isilay, G. Hülya,
Y.F. Ömer (Istanbul Beyoglu Eye Training and Research Hospital,
